Breed Health Co-ordinator Award Application Form

The Breed Health Co-ordinator of the Year Award will be presented to an individual who currently holds the Breed Health Co-ordinator role and does a great deal of work for their breed in a volunteer capacity. The Award prize fund is intended to finance future breed health projects, subsidise health testing for the breed or contribute to health research; and further reward the winner's outstanding contribution in the field of canine health and welfare. The Prize Fund offered for this award is £5,000.

Please note that where the term "Nominee" is used, this refers to the person who is being nominated for the Award – even if you have nominated yourself. Completed applications to reach us no later than 31 January 2023
