Address: The Kennel Club Charitable Trust, 10 Clarges Street, London W1J 8AB

2.2

It is the responsibility of the Data Protection Team to monitor compliance with data protection legislation, and to be the first point of contact for supervisory authorities and for individuals whose personal data is being processed.

3. PARTICULARS OF PROCESSING

The Particulars of Processing for the respective Kennel Club Charitable Trust (KCCT) Trustees, ambassadors, donors and grant applications are set out in the Schedules to this Privacy Notice.

3.2

It may be the case that you have contact in more than one capacity, so please read this notice and then look at the relevant schedule that may apply to you if you wish to know more about how your personal data is processed including the purposes and legal basis. The specific Schedules are as follows:

- Schedule 1 – KCCT Trustees
- Schedule 2 – KCCT ambassadors
- Schedule 3 – Donors to the KCCT
- Schedule 4 – KCCT Grant Applications

3.3

Note – we will use personal data sometimes for statistical purposes but retain anonymity so you cannot be identified.

4. YOUR RIGHTS AS A DATA SUBJECT

4.1

The section sets out the rights of a data subject, as set out on the General Data Protection Regulation. Under certain circumstances by law, you have rights of access, correction, erasure and restriction.

Request access to personal information (commonly known as a ‘data subject access request’). This enables you to receive a copy of the personal information held about you and to check that it is being lawfully processed.

Request correction of your personal information. This enables you to have any incomplete or inaccurate information corrected.

Request erasure of your personal information. To request deletion or removal of personal information where there is not good reason to continue to process the data.

Object to processing of your personal information where we are relying on a legitimate interest (or those of a third party) and there is something about your particular situation which makes you want to object to processing on this ground. You also have the right to object to the processing of your personal information for direct marketing purposes.

Request the restriction of processing of your personal information. This enables you to ask that the processing of personal information be suspended, for example if you want us to establish its accuracy or the reason for processing it.

Request the transfer of your personal information to another party.

If you want to review, verify, correct or request erasure of your personal information, object to the processing of your personal data, or request that we transfer a copy of your personal information to another party, please contact the Data Protection Team in writing using the details in section 2.

4.2

The KCCT will generally process personal data for contractual necessity, legal obligation or its legitimate interests. The KCCT will use personal information for additional relevant purposes you might reasonably expect, and where the benefits of doing so are not outweighed by your own interests or freedoms. The law calls this the ‘Legitimate Interests’ condition for processing. Where we rely on it the benefits being pursued are:

- Complying with/supporting compliance with legal and regulatory requirements
- Internal training purposes
- To maintain records and other administrative purposes, including updating details and preferences

Some of the above grounds for processing will overlap and there may be several grounds which justify our use of your personal information.

4.3

Where processing of personal data is based on consent, there is a right as a data subject to withdraw that consent at any time. If you wish to invoke this right, please notify our Data Protection Team in writing using the details in section 2.

4.4

You have the right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority, In the United Kingdom, the supervisory authority is the Office of the Information Commissioner, full contact details of which can be found at <https://ico.org.uk/global/contact-us/>

5. RECIPIENTS OF DATA

5.1

The Kennel Club Limited provides administrative services including data processing on behalf of the KCCT. Personal data is transferred to the Kennel Club Limited for further processing in accordance for the purpose for which data were originally collected or may otherwise be lawfully processed. Personal data is only disclosed to third parties for a limited number of reasons, these include: charity administration, communications, data management, technical support, and processing payments.

5.2

The Kennel Club Limited has contracted with us as a Data Processor under the requirements in GDPR. It is contractually bound only to use personal data for the agreed purpose(s). Relevant persons working for the Kennel Club Limited will have access to personal data but only to the extent necessary to perform their service for us.

5.3

The Kennel Club Limited agrees to implement reasonable contractual and technical protections, to keep personal data confidential, not sell personal data to third parties and to not disclose personal data to third parties except as may be required by law, as permitted by the KCCT Trustees or as stated in this Privacy Policy.

5.4

In appropriate circumstances we may disclose data to authorised bodies as required by law.
